

BCW Neonatal Program Care Providers

Management of the Infant Confirmed, Suspect/Patient Under Investigation or Contact to COVID-19

April 16, 2020

What's New?	New Care Guideline for the Management of Infants in the Neonatal Program who are confirmed to have, suspect or under investigation for or in contact with someone who has COVID-19. As new information and evidence emerges, practice could change, please ensure referral to the electronic copy of this document for the most up-to-date information.
Why?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Details Isolation Precautions type and duration • Investigations • Parental Presence and Support • See Appendix A: Summary Table
How does this affect my practice?	Interprofessional guideline for the management and investigations for the three classifications CONFIRMED, SUSPECT/PUI or CONTACT CASE to COVID-19. All practitioners are responsible to follow the guideline in consultation with the Neonatologist on service and IPAC.
How do I find out more?	Review the document here: Management Of The Infant Confirmed, Suspect/Patient Under Investigation Or Contact to COVID-19
Who do I contact for further information?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Contact the Educator or CRN 2. Contact the Neonatologist on service 3. Contact the Infection Control Practitioner at: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Local 2161 or pager 41-02411 Monday to Friday 0800-1600 • IPACS@cw.bc.ca • After Hours page the Infection Control Officer through paging 2161