

BCWH: Detailed Flow Intra-Operative Care of COVID+ or PUI Surgical Patient: Room Preparation Before Patient Arrives
April 29, 2020

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| What's New? | Describes surgical room preparation BEFORE COVID+ or PUI surgical patient arrives and preparation following procedure. |
| Why? | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identifies roles and required actions • Identifies room cleaning post procedure |
| How does this affect my practice? | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All BCWH staff involved with surgical services to be informed of this change and review regularly as this is subject to change. |
| How do I find out more? | Review the document here with operational and clinical staff COVID-19: Detailed Flow-Intra-Operative Care of COVID + or PUI Surgical Patient |
| Who do I contact for further information? | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Contact your unit/program clinical educator or nurse leader 2. Page the Infection Control Practitioner at: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Local 2161 or pager 41-02411 Monday to Friday 0800-1600 or IPACS@cw.bc.ca • After Hours page the Infection Control Officer through paging 2161 |